6 DAY NEW ENGLAND FALL FOLIAGE

6 days/ 5 nights New York City > Boston > Portland > New York City

DAY 1 NEW YORK > BOSTON

Today board Amtrak's Northeast Regional at Penn Station for your trip to Boston. Upon arrival check-in to your hotel and start exploring Boston. This historic coastal city is full of sights you won't want to miss. Experience "Beantown" on your hop-on, hop-off sightseeing tour of the city. Visit historic sites, like Paul Revere's House, the Boston Common, and the Old State House. Take a leisurely stroll through the gorgeous Public Gardens and enjoy a swan boat ride. You'll also have the chance to see Boston's modern marvels, including Copley Square and the Boston Christian Science Center's magnificent reflecting pool. (Overnight in Boston) to Portland. Say goodbye to "Beantown" as you travel north to Maine! The pubs, shops, and restaurants of downtown Portland are always buzzing with tourists, locals, and fishermen alike, creating a convivial atmosphere where everyone is welcomed. Portland's vibrant performing arts scene, amazing cuisine, and eclectic group of shops are all part of why locals call this city "New England's Best Kept Secret." There's so much to do here—from food and wine festivals to trolley tours to art gallery exhibits—that you can easily spend an entire vacation in Portland. Tonight, enjoy an included dinner at a popular local restaurant on Portland's gorgeous waterfront. (Overnight in Portland) D

DAY 2 BOSTON

Today you will relive history with a journey back in time to the Revolutionary War era as you follow the route of Paul Revere as he warned the countryside with his infamous cry of "the British are coming!" Travel along the famous Battle Road Trail and see the homes of renowned literary greats, like Hawthorne, Alcott, and Emerson in the charming town of Concord. Stand on Lexington Green, where Captain Jonathan Parker and 77 Minutemen fiercely stood their ground against 700 Redcoats and Concord where the British were turned back at the Old North Bridge. Hang out in Harvard Yard and stroll through Cambridge Common, where George Washington took control of the Continental Army. Drive along "Tory Row" past the home of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. Today, is a history lover's dream come true! (Overnight in Boston)

DAY 3 BOSTON

Today, your Fall Foliage Tour awaits! Board the tour bus on a ride through a region awash in stunning seasonal colors. Sit back and relax as you travel past quiet ponds, ancient farms, weathered roadside taverns, and sturdy colonial churches, all of which are surrounded by the glorious red, orange, and yellow hues. Your pleasant afternoon of leaf peeping will be capped off with a stop at a native orchard for apples and cider. (Overnight in Boston)

DAY 5 PORTLAND

Explore Portland today on your sightseeing tour. Sit back, relax, and enjoy a fully-narrated excursion as your engaging and informative guides treat you to Portland's diverse history and hidden gems. The childhood home of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, the Victoria Mansion, and the bustling Old Port are just a few of the landmarks you'll see as you travel from Portland's city streets to its stunning rocky coast. Don't forget your camera, as you'll have some great photo ops at Portland Head Light, Maine's oldest lighthouse. (Overnight in Portland)

DAY 4 BOSTON > PORTLAND

Wake up this morning head to Boston's North Station, where you will board Amtrak for a ride on the Downeaster

DAY 6 YOUR JOURNEY ENDS IN NEW YORK

This morning board the Downeaster for your journey back to New York. After arriving in Boston, travel on your own from North Station to South Station to make your connection to head on to Penn Station. As the train makes its way to New York, reflect on your wonderful experiences in Boston and Portland.
