

PAWS, LIGHTS, ACTION! Canada your way!

Yukon

3 Day Coast Mountains Mushing tour – Dog Sledding The Yukon

There is no better location in Canada for your mushing adventure to unfold. The pristine lakes and rivers become our dog sledding trails and the western mountain beauty and northern lights are the scenic backdrop to your mushing experience.

The Southern Lakes District of the Yukon and Northern British Columbia is a stunning winter wonderland of mountain-lined lakes, high alpine meadows, twisting rivers and dark green woods.

Enjoy arriving to a gorgeous lake-side location where we set up our heated tents and enjoy a stunning night in the Yukon's Coast Mountains wilderness with opportunity to search for the northern lights or try your hand at ice fishing.

This two night camping tour allows us to explore deeper into the wilderness and arrive to truly spectacular locations

Kluane National Park, one of gems in the crown of Canada's national park system has a heart of perpetual ice and cold. Around its exterior is the "green belt" and this is the area we travel through. This tour is one of our most challenging of our shorter trips and since no snowmobiles are allowed into the Park and we will need to break trail into Louise Lake from Kathleen Lake. The scenery is amazing on this tour!

Day 1 Whitehorse to Kluane National Park
Meet Your Huskies / Mushing Training

Meet your guide in Whitehorse this morning for a briefing then depart for the scenic drive to Haines Junction the gateway to Kluane where you meet your happy Alaskan Huskies who will be the true heart and soul of your trip. Hands on learning – you will be shown how to harness your sled, communicate with your team and how to drive them. Mush out across frozen Kathleen Lake with your team and guides, on arrival at camp help set up the camp and help with the huskies before settling in for the night in your heated and comfortable tent. (LD)

Day 2 – Day 3 Kluane National Park
Mushing Expedition

Over the next two days we will explore further Louise Lake and then travel further up to Sockeye Lake.

This is an adventurous trip that is much more like the dog sledding trips of the old days. There are no groomed trails. The lakes and rivers and open meadows are our routes. We will at times need to take turns breaking trail with snowshoes depending on snow conditions. This is the price of admission to visit a place that only a handful of people ever go to during the winter. No snowmobiles are permitted in Kluane National Park.

Each day by mid-afternoon and begin the process of preparing our camp, the dogs are settled, wood is collected and our heated tents erected, weather permitting dinner is cooked and savoured under the northern lights. (BLD)

Day 4: Back to Whitehorse

After breakfast we break camp, load up the sleds and with your team of huskies, mush back to the kennels arriving mid afternoon, late afternoon/early evening transfer by road to Whitehorse where your adventure ends. (LD)

Note: Meals included in this itinerary are listed as: (B=Breakfast, L=Lunch, D=Dinner)
