Discover the Hidden Charms for all seasons...

Whale watching in Saguenay Fjord

~11hrs Departs end May to end October

Every spring thousands of whales enter the Estuary and Gulf of St Lawrence from the Atlantic Ocean to feed on the teeming shoals of fish and plankton there.

Minke, fin and humpback whales are frequently observed while right, blue and sperm whales are seen less often. Dolphins and porpoise abound as do Beluga whales which live there all year.

Spectacularly beautiful Saguenay Fjord is a prime whale watching area reached from Quebec by a very scenic coach journey through the Charlevoix region to embark from Baie Ste-Catherine or Tadoussac.

On arrival there is a stop for lunch (meals not included) and guests embark ~1.30 pm on a specially designed boat or zodiac for 3hr whale watching tour with commentary from an experienced naturalist.

Private Fall Colours Day tour

Departs mid September to end October

Fall in Québec sweeps in with a burst of colour, aroma and flavour. As September draws to a close, the forests don fiery hues as the leaves turn their characteristic reds, yellows and oranges.

Vines and orchards are laden with fruit, while clouds of snow geese fill the skies in a spectacular pre-Christmas pageant.

With its dry, crisp air and brilliant blue skies, fall is the perfect time for a drive in the countryside with a knowledgeable guide to view the fall colours, visit maple syrup producers and take lunch at a fine restaurant serving the best of the region's fine local produce.
