

Discover Canada Your Way...

Yellowknife - The Aurora Viewing Capital of the World

All visitors to Canada look forward to the possibility of seeing the famous Northern Lights and this is often the prime reason for travelling.

Yellowknife, the capital of Canada's Northwest Territories is acknowledged as one of the worlds best and reliable locations for Aurora viewing. Situated on the shores of the mighty Great Slave Lake it is a thriving and surprisingly modern city of some 20 000 easily accessible via Air North, Air Canada and other airlines.

In Yellowknife, Fall and Winter are the two great aurora viewing seasons with tours combining accommodation in Yellowknife and viewing from lakeside sites to more exotic packages featuring snow mobiling and dog sledding in season, aurora hunting in heated vehicles, viewing from a cruiser on the Great Slave Lake or from a rented lakeside cabin.
