

WILDERNESS ESCAPES Unique Lodges of the Yukon

Tincup Wilderness Lodge

From Whitehorse

Situated on the shore of Tincup Lake close to the Kluane National Park and 250km away from Whitehorse, surrounded by mile upon mile of unspoiled natural landscape, Tincup Wilderness Lodge enjoys a truly unique location.

Accessible only by floatplane you will share this paradise with no more than 10 people, it is perfect for small groups be it families or friends travelling together.

The main lodge houses the lounge and dining area with a large deck overlooking the Ruby Range Mountains, the cabins are built of red Canadian Cedar and all have private bathrooms and woodstoves.

Activities include fishing, guided hikes, canoeing and kayaking, fly camp or doing nothing at all but relaxing, the lodge has a wood fired sauna and hot tub right by the lake shore.

6 Day Inconnu Lodge Wild- life & Adventure

6 days/5 nights from Whitehorse

Inconnu Lodge is known for its world class fishing, wildlife viewing and in September the Aurora Borealis. Each day you will venture out with your private guide by floatplane or boat to view animals, go hiking/walking or to fish. Each adventure is tailored to the individual.

Day 1: Whitehorse – Inconnu Lodge

Early morning scenic (1 hour) floatplane flight from Whitehorse to the lodge. Settle into the lodge, meet your guide and get ready for the next 5 days.

Located 180 airmiles from Whitehorse and only accessible by floatplane, Inconnu Lodge offers luxury in the wilderness on the shores of McEvoy Lake, with only 8 guests at any one time, with no other lodges in site you will be truly immersed in nature.

Days 2-5: Inconnu Lodge

The next four are spent flying into some of the most pristine environments in the world. Untouched rivers and lakes are bountiful with large game fish, while the forests and mountains are home to moose, sheep and other wildlife. A day may be spent on a heli-hike, high into seldom-visited glaciers east of the lodge and then lunch in the 'Cirque of the Unclimbables'. Another day may include a river drift to see animals feed and interact in their natural habitat.

Day 6: Inconnu Lodge – Whitehorse

After breakfast fly back to Whitehorse where your adventure ends.
