Day 1: Yellowknife

Fly from the Rockies or Vancouver to Yellowknife. Check into your hotel for a two night stay. This afternoon discover the city we recommend a visit to the Yellowknife Brew Company. Later tonight head out for an Aurora Hunting excursion.

Day 2: Yellowknife – Great Slave Lake & Indigenous Culture

Spend the morning cruising one of the largest lakes in the world- Great Slave Lake, your indigenous guide will share their history and culture. This afternoon we recommend a flightseeing tour over the Yellowknife River to see the colours and track animals.

Days 3-4: Yellowknife – Yellow Dog Lodge Aurora Viewing

A 20 minute float plane trip north east of Yellowknife will find you at the remote Yellow Dog Lodge. For years the lodge has been known for the fantastic fishing, but people are travelling to Yellow Dog Lodge for the brilliant Aurora displays, just imagine sitting in the outdoor hot-tub and watching the Aurora Borealis, view wildlife such as wolf, moose, bear and bald eagles as you canoe the pristine rivers, go hiking in the wilderness. During your stay all meals are included, use of canoes, kayaks, paddle board. Sport fishing available with supplement. Yellow Dog Lodge.

Day 5: Yellowknife – Ottawa

Fly to the countries capital, check into your hotel.

Day 6: Ottawa

Meet your guide and enjoy a 2 hour walking tour of the city, stops include Parliament Hill, the UNESCO Rideau Canal, By Ward market. The afternoon is at leisure, visit Gatineau Park to view the wonderful fall foliage or take a cruise and enjoy the views from the water.
