

Winter Festivals & Christmas in Quebec City!

Quebec City is rated in the world's top 15 destinations for celebrating the magic of Christmas and the holidays. Starting at the end of November, Old Québec is transformed into a real Christmas village, just like Dicken's novel "A Christmas Carol". The quaint streets and historic buildings are transformed with enchanting light displays, shop at the German Christmas Market, take the kids to meet Santa, take a "taste & history" tour of the Old City.
