

The Yukon - Small Group Adventure!

Follow the trail of the prospectors and adventure seekers en route from Whitehorse to Skagway over White Pass, cruise the Lynn Canal to Haines, and head on through spectacular glaciers and peaks to Haines Junction, where an optional sightseeing flight takes you over some of the highest peaks and largest glaciers on the continent.

8 Day Golden Circle Southern Yukon & Alaska

8 days/7 nights Small Group Guided Adventure Group size: Max 20 guests

8 Guaranteed departures from 7th June - 13th September. Call for details.

Cost per person from $3,500 twin share: Single supplement from $1,200

Day 1: Arrive Whitehorse

Transfer to your hotel and meet your fellow travelers and tour guide.

Day 2: Whitehorse – White Pass & Yukon Rail – Skagway

Head south along the Klondike Highway. On the way see the smallest desert in the world and the extraordinary colours of Emerald Lake. At Carcross board the train for the historic journey over the White Pass to Skagway.

Emerald Lake

Day 3: Skagway – Lynn Canal – Haines

Cruise along the Lynn Canal to Haines arriving in time to tour the town. Tonight is BBQ night (D)

Day 4: Haines

A day at leisure, discover the town, walk along the many trails or take an optional cruise to Juneau.

Lynn Canal

Day 5: Haines – Haines Junction

Travel along Haines Road which connects Alaska and Canada. This is spectacular alpine wilderness, filled with roaring rivers and high mountains.

Day 6: Haines Junction & Kluane National Park

Kluane National park is home to Canada's highest peak- Mt Logan and its largest ice-field. We spend the morning walking in the park and for those who wish full day guided hikes can be arranged or take an optional scenic flightseeing tour over the peaks and icefields.

Flightseeing over Kluane NP

Day 7: Haines Junction – Whitehorse

The morning is at leisure to further explore Kluane NP. Driving to Whitehorse along the Alaska Highway we stop at the "Long Ago Peoples' Place," a small First Nations Camp where we learn about the life of the Southern Tutchone people.

Day 8: Depart Whitehorse

Walk along the riverside, visit the museum, or walk around the town before being transferred to the airport for your flight. Stay longer – during late August & September the Northern Lights come out to "dance" ask about our Aurora viewing packages!

Price includes: 7 nights middle range hotel accommodation, all transport in an air conditioned vehicle with qualified guide, ferry transport Skagway – Haines, 1 BBQ dinner, national park entrance fees, guided hike in Kluane NP, transfers as listed, White Pass & Yukon railway one way

Yukon
LARGER THAN LIFE