

Northern Lights Wilderness Lodges

View the Northern Lights from a remote wilderness lodge

During the Fall, daylight soft adventure activities such as guided hiking, canoeing and fishing are offered. Come Winter, your soft adventure activities can include snowshoeing, dog sledding, ice fishing and snowmobile. At night when the "lights" come out to dance you can sit back on your private deck to watch this magical experience.

Muktuk Adventure Ranch

4 days/3 nights Located 30 minutes by road from Whitehorse

Muktuk ranch sits on 86 acres nestled in the Ibex Valley. The views are thanks to our location on the Takhini River amid the untouched beauty of Laberge and Haeckel Hills, simply breathtaking no matter which direction you look. You will share the ranch with 125 adorable Huskies, a mixture of retirees, huskies in training for the Yukon Quest and pups who are ready to head out on the trail for a day of dog sledding with guests that come from all over the world.

The classic two-storey Main Lodge has four guest rooms, and is the main hub of the lodge life, with dining hall, lounge and sitting areas. There are also two cabins which can accommodate families as well.

FALL 4 days/3 nights
